

Report on Training Programme on “Aquaculture Engineering”

Division of Aquaculture, ICAR-CIFE organized a first ever customized training program on "Aquaculture Engineering" for the engineers of department of fisheries, Government of Meghalaya, from 9th to 14th October 2023. Dr. Debajit Sarma, Head, Division of Aquaculture organised the training as a Course Director and Dr. Chandrakant M. H., Dr. Sukham Munilkumar., Dr. A. K. Verma and Dr. Kapil Sukhdhane as coordinators. This training programme mainly emphasized on design and construction aspects of different aquaculture system such as Fish ponds, Fish hatchery, Recirculatory Aquaculture System, Trout raceways, Cage farming structure, Precision aquaculture systems, Aquarium house, Cold storage plants, Ice plants, Feed mill plants etc. The participants were asked to prepare model engineered designs of different aquaculture systems during the practical session. A total of 10 (1 female, 9 male) engineers from different districts of Meghalaya benefited from the program. Dr. N. P. Sahu, Joint director, ICAR-CIFE graced the valedictory function and distributed the certificates among the participant's while providing valuable remarks on the occasion.

