

Fermented Mackerel technology demonstration & training programme

Venue : CMRC, Ratnagiri, Maharashtra

Date : 23rd to 25th November, 2022

Report

‘Fermented Mackerel technology demonstration & training programme’ was conducted at CMRC, Ratnagiri, Maharashtra from 23rd to 25th November, 2022. It was organized by Agri Business Incubation (ABI) Center, ICAR-CIFE, Mumbai for women self help group members from different SHG’s. A total of 29 participants attended the training program. Dr. B. B. Nayak, HoD & PS, FRHPHM and PI-ABI, ICAR-CIFE, Mumbai had interaction with all the trainees & explained future scope for fermented mackerel technology. All the trainees practically learned fermented mackerel preparation. During training, the ABI team, CMRC - Ratnagiri team and Officials from State Fisheries, Ratnagiri discussed with trainees about Govt schemes and future development. Also, location visit was conducted for establishment of value added fish & shellfish products unit was conducted for CMRC, Ratnagiri. After an interactive session on last day, programme was concluded with the vote of thanks from Dr. B. B. Nayak.

